I.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Mr. Samira has been charged in an indictment with Naturalization Fraud, Procuring Naturalization by Fraud and Visa Fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1015(a), 1425(a) and 1546(a). The indictment does not specify the nature of the fraud beyond an allegation that he “provided a false answer to question 23 of his Application for Naturalization (N-400).” Question 23 of the N-400 asks “Have you ever given false or misleading information to any U.S. government official while applying for any immigration benefit or to prevent deportation, exclusion or removal?”

2 MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY AND PRESERVE EVIDENCE

3 Mr. Samira moves for the production by the government of the following discovery and 4 for the preservation of evidence. This request is not limited to those items that the prosecutor 5 knows of, but rather includes all discovery listed below that is in the custody, control, care, or 6 knowledge of any government agency. See generally Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995); 7 United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032 (9th Cir. 1989).

8 (1) The Defendant's Statements. The government must disclose to the defendant all 9 copies of any written or recorded statements made by the defendant; the substance of any 10 statements made by the defendant which the government intends to offer in evidence at trial; any 11 response by the defendant to interrogation; the substance of any oral statements which the 12 government intends to introduce at trial and any written summaries of the defendant's oral 13 statements contained in the handwritten notes of the government agent; any response to any 14 Miranda warnings which may have been given to the defendant; as well as any other statements 15 by the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A). The Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991 16 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the Government must reveal all the defendant's 17 statements, whether oral or written, regardless of whether the government intends to make any 18 use of those statements.

19 (2) Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. The defendant also specifically requests 20 the government to turn over all arrest reports, notes, dispatch or any other tapes, and TECS 21 records that relate to the circumstances surrounding his arrest or any questioning. This request 22 includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in 23 which statements of the defendant or any other discoverable material is contained. Such material 24 is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).
25 The government must produce arrest reports, investigators' notes, memos from arresting officers, 26 dispatch and other tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant 27 and his arrest. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B) and (C), Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 12(I).
28

1 (3) Brady Material. The defendant requests all documents, statements, agents' reports, 2 and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the 3 credibility of the government's case. Under Brady, impeachment as well as exculpatory 4 evidence falls within the definition of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v.
5 Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).

6 Specifically, Mr. Samira requests statements, including Grand Jury transcripts, related to 7 Michelle Correa, Mr. Samira's ex-wife. Defense counsel has been advised by Ms. Correa's 8 attorney that she provided exonerating testimony before the Grand Jury, stating under oath that 9 her marriage to Mr. Samira was legitimate and entered into in good faith and with no fraudulent 10 intent.

11 (4) Any Information That May Result in a Lower Sentence Under The Guidelines. The 12 government must produce this information under Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). This 13 request includes any cooperation or attempted cooperation by the defendant as well as any 14 information that could affect any base offense level or specific offense characteristic under 15 Chapter Two of the Guidelines. The defendant also requests any information relevant to a 16 Chapter Three adjustment, a determination of the defendant's criminal history, and information 17 relevant to any other application of the Guidelines.

18 (5) The Defendant's Prior Record. The defendant requests disclosure of his prior record.
19 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B).

20 (6) Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. The government must produce evidence of prior 21 similar acts under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, 22 under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), "upon request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide 23 reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the general nature" of any evidence the government 24 proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at trial. The defendant requests such notice 25 sufficiently in advance of trial in order to give the defense time to adequately investigate and 26 prepare for trial.

27 (7) Evidence Seized. The defendant requests production of evidence seized as a result of 28

1 any search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C).

2 (8) Request for Preservation of Evidence. The defendant specifically requests the 3 preservation of all tapes, documents or any other physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, 4 or otherwise put out of the possession, custody, or care of the government and which relate to the 5 arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this case. This request includes, but is not limited to, 6 the results of any fingerprint analysis, the defendant's personal effects, and any evidence seized 7 from the defendant or any third party.

8 (9) Tangible Objects. The defendant requests the opportunity to inspect and copy as 9 well as test, if necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, 10 papers, documents, fingerprint analyses, vehicles, or copies of portions thereof, which are 11 material to the defense or intended for use in the government's case-in-chief or were obtained 12 from or belong to the defendant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C).

13 (10) Expert Witnesses. The defendant requests the name, qualifications, and a written 14 summary of the testimony of any person that the government intends to call as an expert witness 15 during its case in chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

16 (11) Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. The defendant requests any evidence that any 17 prospective government witness is biased or prejudiced against the defendant, or has a motive to 18 falsify or distort his or her testimony.

19 (12) Impeachment Evidence. The defendant requests any evidence that any prospective 20 government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and 21 whether any witness has made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 22 609 and 613; Brady v. Maryland. In addition, Mr. Samira requests that the Assistant United 23 States Attorney assigned to this case oversee a review of all personnel files of each agent 24 involved in the present case for impeachment material. Kyles v. Whitley, 115 S. Ct. 1555 25 (1995); United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991); but see United States v. Herring, 26 83 F.3d 1120 (9th Cir. 1996).

27 (13) Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. The defendant 28

1 requests any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or 2 local authorities for any criminal conduct.

3 (14) Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth 4 Telling. The defense requests any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or 5 evaluation, that tends to show that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, 6 communicate, or tell the truth is impaired, and any evidence that a witness has ever used 7 narcotics or other controlled substance, or has ever been an alcoholic.

8 (15) Witness Addresses. The defendant requests the name and last known address of 9 each prospective government witness. The defendant also requests the name and last known 10 address of every witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in 11 furtherance thereof) who will not be called as a government witness.

12 (16) Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. The defendant requests the name 13 of any witness who made an arguably favorable statement concerning the defendant or who 14 could not identify him or who was unsure of his identity, or participation in the crime charged.

15 (17) Statements Relevant to the Defense. The defendant requests disclosure of any 16 statement relevant to any possible defense or contention that he might assert.

17 (18) Jencks Act Material. The defendant requests production in advance of trial of all 18 material, including dispatch tapes, which the government must produce pursuant to the Jencks 19 Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at the request of 20 defendant to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough" notes 21 constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is sufficient for the report or notes to 22 qualify as a statement under section 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-23 92 (1963). In United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) the Ninth Circuit held that 24 when an agent goes over interview notes with the subject of the interview the notes are then 25 subject to the Jencks Act.

26 (19) Giglio Information. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), the 27 defendant requests all statements and/or promises, express or implied, made to any government 28

1 witnesses, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which could 2 arguably be used for the impeachment of any government witnesses.

3 (20) Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. The defendant requests 4 discovery regarding any express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, 5 present, or future compensation, or any other kind of agreement or understanding, including any 6 implicit understanding relating to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, 7 between any prospective government witness and the government (federal, state and/or local).
8 This request also includes any discussion with a potential witness about or advice concerning 9 any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain was made, or the 10 advice not followed.

11 (21) Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of the 12 names and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, 13 and in particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or 14 otherwise participated in the crime charged against Mr. Samira. The government must disclose 15 the informant's identity and location, as well as disclose the existence of any other percipient 16 witness unknown or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 52, 61-62 17 (1957). The government must disclose any information derived from informants which 18 exculpates or tends to exculpate the defendant.

19 (22) Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. The defendant requests disclosure of 20 any information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v.
21 United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information would include what, if any, inducements, 22 favors, payments or threats were made to the witness to secure cooperation with the authorities.

23 (23) Immigration/A-File Records. The defendant requests any and all records referring 24 or relating to Mr. Samira's immigration history including, but no limited to, his A-file.

25 (24) Residual Request. Mr. Samira intends by this discovery motion to invoke his rights 26 to discovery to the fullest extent possible under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and the 27 Constitution and laws of the United States. Mr. Samira requests that the government provide 28

1 him and his attorney with the above requested material sufficiently in advance of trial to avoid 2 unnecessary delay prior to cross-examination.

3 III.

4 MOTION TO COMPEL THE GOVERNMENT TO 5 PROVIDE A BILL OF PARTICULARS

6 Mr. Samira moves this Court to direct the government to file a bill of particulars. See 7 Fed. Rule Crim. Pro. 7(f). A bill of particulars is warranted where it will enable adequate 8 preparation of the defense and prevent surprise at trial. United States v. Giese, 597 F.2d 1170, 9 1180 (9th Cir. 1979). A bill of particulars provides a defendant with the details of the charges 10 necessary to present a defense, to avoid prejudicial surprise at trial, and to protect against a 11 second prosecution based upon the same facts. See United States v. Cecil, 608 F.2d 1294, 1296 12 (9th Cir. 1979)(noting also that a bill of particulars ensures that the defendant is tried on the basis 13 of facts presented to a grand jury). Mr. Samira has rights under the Fifth and Sixth Amendments 14 and Fed.R.Crim.P. 7(f) to notice of the charges against him and a fair trial with an opportunity to 15 defend himself against the charges. In addition, a bill of particulars guarantees a defendant's 16 Fifth Amendment right to be tried on a charge found by a Grand Jury, as a defendant is entitled 17 to know the Government's theory as to a particular count. See Yeargain v. United States, 314 18 F.2d 881, 882 (9th Cir. 1963). This is even true where the indictment states all the ingredients of 19 the offense. Myers v. United States, 15 F.2d 977, 983 (8th Cir. 1926) ("The office of a bill of 20 particulars attaches without distinction, where the indictment states all the ingredients of the 21 offense and further detail may be required or demanded for the protection of the defendant").
 22 See also United States v. Thompson, 189 F. 838, 839 (W.D.Va. 1911)("An indictment may be so 23 expressed as to be good on demurrer and which still does not give the defendant all the 24 information which he should in fairness have in order to properly prepare for trial, and in such 25 case the defects in the indictment, in Federal practice, may be overcome by a bill of 26 particulars"). Mr. Samira has no idea how the government will prove the elements of the 27 fraud charges alleged in the indictment. Nothing in the indictment provides sufficient notice.
 28 The indictment does not specify the nature of the fraud beyond an allegation that he "provided a

1 false answer to question 23 of his Application for Naturalization (N-400).” Question 23 of the 2 N-400 asks “Have you ever given false or misleading information to any U.S. government 3 official while applying for any immigration benefit or to prevent deportation, exclusion or 4 removal?” Accordingly, for preparation and notice, Mr. Samira moves this court to order the 5 government to produce a bill of particulars explaining it’s theory of liability on these counts.

6
7 IV.

8 REQUEST FOR LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

9 To date, Mr. Samira and defense counsel have received 308 pages of discovery from the 10 government. There is considerable additional discovery anticipated, including the A-file.
11 Therefore, it is requested that defense counsel be allowed the opportunity to file further motions 12 based upon information gained through the discovery process.

13 V.

14 CONCLUSION

15 For the foregoing reasons, Mr. Samira respectfully requests that the Court grant the 16 above motions.

17 Respectfully submitted,
